

Redwood Park

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

REDWOOD Park is such a lovely place to walk.

It is unbelievable that the council thinks mountain bike track should be allowed there. The precious habitat of many birds and animals will be damaged. Bushwalkers and families out walking will be disturbed by the bikers.

The escarpment is fragile and should be preserved. Build a track in a less sensitive environment. What do Friends of the Escarpment think of this plan?

SHEILA FORKNALL, Middle Ridge